

1. The article should be structured in accordance with Requirements. Submission of manuscripts is allowed during the entire year with the waiting period for publishing - up to 6 months.

2. The article is submitted to the Editorial Office to the electronic mail address: geolgt@gmail.com. All communications with the Editorial Staff are carried out through this address.

ATTENTION! Delivery of the article to the Editorial Office with the purpose of its publication means automatic agreement of the author(s) with conditions of the License Contract.

3. The Editorial Board preserves the right to carry out editorial proof-reading of the article.

4. Publication of articles is carried out on the chargeable basis in accordance with the "Agreement of publication." POSSIBLE SYSTEM OF GRANTS

5. The article, annotations, key words and information about the authors should be in the same file.

6. The author gets 1 (one) author's copy of the Bulletin (1 copy of the Bulletin for 1 article). Additional copies of the Bulletin could be purchased from the Publisher by preliminary order (specify in the end of the article or send the order by e-mail).

7. In the case the author does not have academic degree, a scanned copy, in a graphical format, of the review (recommendation, assignment, reference) of the scientific adviser, certified with a signature and seal, should be sent to the email address of the Bulletin apart from the article file. Information about the scientific adviser is published in the Bulletin after the text of the article (family name, first name, patronymic name, academic degree, place of employment, position, city).

8. The Editorial Board send the article for external peer-reviewing. A negative decision on the publication of the article will be reported to the authors. The article can be returned for revision.

9. The Editorial Board makes final decision with respect of a possibility to publish the article after external peer-reviewing. In the event of positive decision on publication of the article, the author receives relevant notification and invoice. Invoice is paid through cashless settlement in any bank branch.

10. Articles that belong to one thematic section of the Bulletin are published, as a rule, on a first-come-first-served basis, based on the date of submission of the article to the Editorial Office. Articles are included into the list only after the Editorial Board receives confirmation of payment for publication.

11. The volume of articles after publishing is handed to the authors by the Editorial Office or by mail (on request).
